VENTILADOR MUSIC

ANNA RALB

Urban Pop - Electronics - Synthwave

She is an alternative artist who moves between the urban pop genre, always keeping in mind the energy of electronic elements. Producer and singer, she composes her own songs, taking us into her universe of synthesizers, hypnotic voices and seductive rhythms.

LAURA CAPDEVILA

Pop - Soul

She is an emerging singer and songwriter on the Catalan music scene. Her music encompasses a fusion of urban and classical styles, influenced by soul, R&B, jazz and pop. Her "poppy" melodies, together with her haunting lyrics, reveal her sensitivity and vocal versatility, which travel under the motto "less is more".

CAPINÀS

Rumba - Electronic mestizo

Always passionate about music, and why not say it, also about partying, decided to found a band where they could combine the two factors and bring the excitement and good vibes wherever they go. Something that they have guaranteed at all times thanks to their powerful combination of styles, championing a mestizo and energetic sound. They will not leave anyone indifferent and will bring more than one smile to our faces with each play.

WE ARE MONO

Alternative Indie-Rock

They are an alternative rock band, who have been creating followers of their peculiar Manchester sound since 2002. With a youthful and cheeky attitude, worthy of any teen band, which adds to their experience on stage and their quality as artists.

LAS WONDER

Alternative Indie Rock

They are a female band that break the mould of current indie music. They are committed to adding a touch of eighties rock with dark tints, atmospheres in which their hypnotic guitars are accentuated, loaded with effects, and lyrics that deal with the most beautiful events in life to the crudest reality. Their next EP is produced by Paco Loco.

SPEAKER CABINETS

Alternative Pop-Rock

It is an alternative rock band formed by three young people who revolutionise the classic "power trio" format. In their live shows, the band has a powerful staging, where they waste energy and decibels in equal parts.

ANNA LUNA

Jazz / World Fussion

Singer, guitarist and composer Anna Luna needs little introduction. Considered by critics and audiences as one of the most prestigious jazz and Brazilian music singers in Spain, she has been nominated and awarded several times for her jazz fusion albums, and has been applauded in theatres, auditoriums and festivals over the course of two decades.

LOS MANOLOS

Catalan Rumba

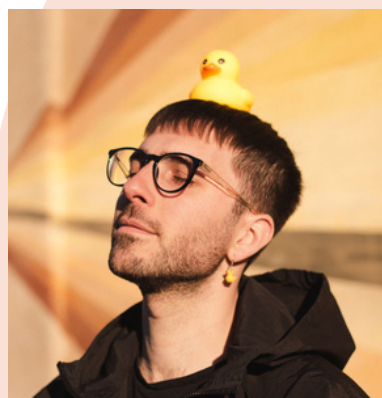

They date back to the end of 1989, when ten friends from Barcelona, fans of the Catalan rumba, combined this genre with rock instruments and attitude. Their repertoire includes rumbas of Peret and Gato Pérez, adaptations of pop songs and songs of their own creation. They are always ready to take rumba wherever they want to bring joy and party.

MAISON BÉLIER

New Folk-Pop

A duo formed by Juanlu Leprevost (Ojos de Brujo/Calima) and Elsa Formisano. Influenced by different styles such as soul, flamenco, reggae, bossa and bolero, with a nod to electronica. Their cross-border repertoire takes us to places where Catalan, French and Portuguese merge with Spanish.

MERCADER

Indie-Pop

His great ability to compose hits now accompanies him in his solo career: well-rounded songs with unforgettable melodies and choruses. Brazen, fun, always with humor, the artist presents us vital and lucid songs in which he celebrates his strong commitment to the LGTBIQ+ community.

ÒSCAR BRIZ

Songwriter

He is one of the most outstanding creators of the Valencian music scene in the last decades. The Valencian singer, guitarist and author began his solo career in 1999, usually accompanied with his band.

ALEX TRIADÓ

Pop songwriter

Musician, composer and producer, Aleix offers us sweet atmospheres where guitar and singer-songwriter music expand to embrace elements of electronics and also Brazilian tradition. With lyrical and moving lyrics, the result is an exotic feeling, a melancholic intimacy rich in tones.

SARITAH

Reggae-Soul (Australia)

She is an Australia-based artist. Her music is inspired by reggae, soul, pop and world music. An organic and feminine mix, with acoustic flavours and a special charisma to connect with the audience.

FRANKIE CHAVEZ

Blues-Rock (Portugal)

He combines a wide range of sounds resulting in a blues/folk/rock composed of clean and raw rhythms. His spectacular live performance, virtuosity and musical approach have led to him being referred to as the new blues revelation of Southern Europe.

ESPAÑA CIRCO ESTE

Tango-Punk (Italy)

They represent a unique and explosive sound that has been defined as tango-punk, influenced by reggae, balkan and ska. With more than 500 concerts, this experienced group has opened for Manu Chao and Shaggy, among others.
